

The Federal Communications Commission

Dear The Federal Communications Commission,

The proposed flat tax rate is a unfair tax burden for those of us that are low volume cellphone users.

People with limited incomes who use there cellphone for safety reasons may be forced to discontinue service and risk being in a situation of danger without a cellphone.

Please do not implement this proposal.

Thank you

Sincerely,

Jose Mendez
6751 SW 8 Street
miami, Florida 33144